ORDER:

In order to facilitate synergies in monitoring and implementation of various large public funded programmes of the Ministry of Rural Development, the Government of India have notified the formation of District Level District Development Coordination and Monitoring (DISHA) Committees at both urban and rural districts of the country, duly replacing the District Level Vigilance & Monitoring Committees (V&MC). Despite of the clear cut directions of the DISHA Committees at the District level, large number of the issues of important and emergent nature were remaining unattended, for want of the apex level coordination. Hence, the Government of India has envisaged the formation of the State Level DISHA Committee chaired by the concerned Chief Minister of the State, duly replacing the State Level Vigilance & Monitoring Committees with the following objectives:

(i) To ensure quality of expenditure, particularly in the context of optimization of public funds spent under different programmes of Central Government.

(ii) To monitor the implementation of programmes in accordance with the prescribed procedures and guidelines.

(iii) Promote synergy and convergence of different programmes, review intra State disparities.

(iv) Provide a crucial role to the elected peoples representatives in reviewing the implementation of the Central Government programmes in the State.

2. The detailed guidelines consisting of composition, terms of reference, number of meetings, agenda, expenditure, powers and programmes to be covered by the State Level DISHA Committee etc have been issued by the Government of India vide reference 1st and 2nd read above.

3. In the circumstances reported by the Commissioner of Rural Development Department, A.P., Tadepalli in the letter 3rd read above, and the nominations made by the Ministry of Rural Development, Government of India, New Delhiin the letters 4th read above, Government after careful examination, hereby decide and order to constitute the State Level District Development Coordination and Monitoring Committee (DISHA), with the following members, as per the para (3) of the guidelines issued in references 1st and 2nd read above,
